

Around 431 million Africans on the continent are living below the extreme poverty line and underprivileged
We're on a mission to change that.

WHO WE ARE

The African Organization for Social Development (OASD) is a charitable organization that is non-profit, non-governmental, and non-discriminatory organization that was established in 2021 in Uganda. Our goal is to foster social and economic development for Africa's underprivileged and disadvantaged communities. We prioritize family, women, youth, and child safety issues, as well as inclusive and effective social protection systems.

The well-being of a society in which there is an established system of social growth and citizens enjoy their social, political, and economic rights.

MISSION:

To empower African citizens', families', and communities' rights by promoting purposeful and responsive legislation, stakeholder empowerment, good governance, and responsive service delivery.

We take a social development approach that includes empowering communities, fostering peace and social justice, increasing access to public services, combating prejudice, and establishing long-term income and economic structures.
